Holiday “Homework”

Emma Seppala Ph.D. is Associate Director of the Center for Compassion and Altruism Research and Education at Stanford University. On her website and Twitter account she explores the importance of social connectivity and its implications for health and happiness.

In a recently published article on the Psychology Today website, she asserts that our culture has become one of compulsive overworking. Our descriptors of people who are “successful” often include language around constantly striving, being better; harder; pushing, running and innovating. I am sure we can all identify some of these traits in colleagues or family members, or perhaps ourselves. There is no doubt that having goals and working towards them are important life pursuits. However, with greater use of mobile technologies it is easy to be constantly “present” and connected all of the time. This mode of working can be incredibly productive and helpful but it can also impact on physical, social and emotional health if a balance is not found.

In a recent Chapel Service, Chaplain Karen Petterson explored the concept that “time is short” and students interviewed me about the ways in which I manage my time. My clear message was that I do schedule everything, and I mean everything. My schedule includes all of my appointments and deadlines but also allocated time for family, friends and staring at the view.

With the upcoming holiday break providing an ideal time to evaluate workflow, I suggest all students should consider the following:

Just Be

Seppala states, “It’s important that the brain has had time to relax, restore, and reflect.”. Spend time on things you love but have not had time to do for a while (writing poetry, bushwalking, going to the movies, daydreaming). Look for ways to meditate, breathe deeply and sit quietly. Research shows that relaxation creates enhanced alpha waves in the brain that facilitate improved memory and creative thought.

Plan

Use some of the additional time free from scheduled lessons to plan a better daily and weekly routine. Spend some time mapping out Term Two and how your upcoming commitments look. Identify potential stressful times and schedule in “Just Be” time (as above) to help you sustain your energy.

Be of Service

Giving to others provides social benefits, enhances self-concept and creates positivity. Volunteering one’s time and effort also builds connection to community and can foster the development of new skills and interests.
I wish all students and staff a relaxing and reinvigorating term break and I look forward to seeing all Pulteney students return on Tuesday 29 April refreshed and ready for all the opportunities that Term Two will bring.

International recognition for Art Teacher, Antonio Clemente

Antonio has been invited to exhibit his work in New York this year – a wonderful testament to his artistic skills that he shares with our students on a daily basis. Antonio’s work was discovered online by the Agora Gallery in New York City and will feature throughout May and June in an exhibition entitled Out From Down Under & Beyond: Fine Art From Australia and New Zealand. It is wonderful when our staff exhibit their passion for their craft in and out of school and we are very proud of Antonio’s achievement.

From the Chaplain

Palm Sunday, Holy Week, Good Friday and Easter

I finish this weeks PRW article having just come from the beautiful and energizing Kurrajong ‘End of Term Easter Celebration Concert’. I contemplate just how wonderful Lent has been for me. Beginning with Ash Wednesday in the gym and involving my ongoing chapel work with Middle School and One Ninety students, I have been given the glorious privilege of reflecting on my own faith whilst also pondering how to best share this with others.

As we approach Holy Week, Good Friday and Easter; the challenge of honouring everybody as we explore our understanding of faith is always with us. Palm Sunday focuses us on a triumphant Jesus, however we know of the betrayal, abandonment and impending arrest of Christ that is to come. On Good Friday we face Christ’s horrendous death, sacrifice on the cross and on Easter Day Jesus’ glorious resurrection. Literally what does this mean? Or importantly what can this mean?

I have found my faith to always be shaped by an embrace, appreciation and contentment with the mysterious qualities of faith. Not a passive acquiescence to faith shaped by suspension of human logic or belief in magic, but rather a faith built on an apprehension of faith’s mystery that cannot be completely or logically explained. Nevertheless a faith that has always needed to be deeply explored at an intellectual level. I have never expected my faith to be constant or unchanging. Yet my Christian faith has been a constant aspect in my life.

The paschal mystery is intensely experienced each Lent and Easter and at every celebration of the Eucharist. In this we come to know that which cannot be explained.

‘During Jesus’ arrest, trial, passion and crucifixion, his love is greater than the cost of his life. His self-giving is greater than his desire for self protection, his faithfulness is greater than the suffering and death he faces. Jesus is Jesus because of his love, self-giving and faithfulness.’

At once transcendent and beyond human experience, and at the same time something very human, something that those who love us do for us all the time in some way or another.

Preparing for Baptism, Reception to Communion, Confirmation

Beginning in Term 2 students at Pulteney will be given these focused opportunities to explore their spirituality and faith. Please make contact with the chaplains if you have anything you wish to discuss.

Magdalene Centre

Providing gifts of food and op shop items for the Magdalene Centre continues as a regular opportunity for us to do something kind.

Donations can be brought to the Chapel Foyer. Thank you for your generosity.

Easter Blessings

As we approach the end of term, Holy Week and the Easter Season, as your chaplains Karen and I wish all Pulteney families a happy and holy holiday time with family and friends. May your Easter break be filled with joy, peace and hope. May your travels be safe and times of relaxation fruitful.

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge of love of God.

The blessing of the Living God, who brings light out of darkness, be upon you now and forever.

The blessing of the risen Christ, be upon you now and forever.

The blessing of the Holy Spirit, who fills the church and our lives with joy and praise, be upon you now and forever.

The blessing of our God, the holy and glorious Trinity, be upon you and remain with you now and forever. Amen.

Deep Peace,
Michael

Careers Corner

Website information for exploring post-school options

If they haven’t already started, Year 12 students may like to begin exploring their options for 2015 and beyond. Whilst it is important students concentrate on their studies throughout the term, to ensure they have the best possible outcomes from their Year 12, the upcoming holiday time provides a little respite from the day to day pressures of being at school and therefore an opportunity to explore some post schooling options. Below are several websites, which students (and parents) may find useful, when exploring pathways for their future.

Changes to University Bonus Points Scheme - 2016 entry

The three SA universities are replacing all current equity and subject bonus point schemes with two new bonus schemes. The new schemes will come in to operation for students studying Year 12 in 2015, who apply for entry to studies commencing in the 2016 university academic year. For specific information about the changes, go to http://www.satac.edu.au/documents/factsheet_sacentcet_saunisbonuspoints.pdf

Bond University Scholarship Information Night – Monday 26 May

Students interested in applying to Bond University are advised that applications are now open. Each year, Bond University offers a 50% Collegiate Scholarship and a 50% Leadership Scholarship to two Pulteney Year 12 students. Year 12 students have been emailed detailed information about the process of application for these two scholarships, which involves an online application to Bond University and also an internal school application. Bond University also offer a number of full-fee and part-fee scholarships to Australia's best and brightest students. To learn more about Bond University, FEE-HELP, financing a degree and the scholarships on offer, parents and students are invited to attend an Information Evening on Monday 26 May, 6.30 – 8.30pm at the Adelaide Hilton Hotel. In addition to attending the information night, students wanting to apply for the many Bond University scholarships online are encouraged to go to http://www.bond.edu.au/scholarships to explore their options. If applying to Bond University, students will need to attach the following information to their application:

• a recent photograph
• their full resume
• all supporting documentation outlined in the selection guide for each scholarship
• certified copies of school reports and academic transcripts

Students will also be required to provide a letter of reference from a nominated person from Pulteney. Applications for all bond university scholarships close on 31 July. The Admissions Manager for SA is Mr Matt Stubbart and he can be contacted by email at mstubber@bond.edu.au.

Parents as Career Transition Support - Disability Focus

A series of free workshops for parents and guardians of young people with a disability are being offered in July, to offer advice and information about career related issues such as the difference between University and TAFE, the sorts of jobs available, the support and services available for young people with a disability and information on how to help your teenager make good career choices, including pathways to tertiary study. The sessions will be held on Wednesday 23, 30 July and 6 August from 10am – 12noon OR 6 – 8pm, at the Disability Information Resource Centre (DIRC), 195 Gilles Street, Adelaide. To get the most out of the workshops, you are required to attend all three. I will be attending the seminars, along with Jen Cousins, National Disability Coordination Officer and Suzanne Megaw, Flexible Pathways Coordinator at St Mary’s College. Light refreshments will be provided. For further information, please contact Jen Cousins on 8207 8652 or email her on Jennifer.cousins@tafesa.edu.au or you can contact me for a flyer.

Parents as Career Transition Support – Thursday 10 April, 7pm

Parents living in the Eastern suburbs, interested in finding out up-to-date information about educational pathways, career transitions, the difference between TAFE and university, apprenticeships, SACE, VET and making good career choices, are invited to attend a 2 hour workshop, hosted by the Campbelltown Family Town partners, on Thursday 10 April 2014, 7 – 9pm, at Campbelltown Council Chambers, 172 Montacute Road, Rostrevor. Light refreshments will be served. Contact 8366 9207, or youth@campbelltown.sa.gov.au, to reserve a place.

Come & Try Flinders Uni 2014 - Wednesday 2 July 2014, 10am – 2pm

Flinders University invites high school students with learning needs, disabilities and health conditions to experience university first hand. The seminar involves meeting disability advisors and current university students with disabilities and also going on a tour of the universities science and nursing facilities. Morning tea and lunch will be provided. Students must be accompanied by a person responsible for duty of care. For further information, or to RSVP, please contact Paula Williams or Toni Crisci, Disability advisors, Flinders University via disability@flinders.edu.au or phone (08) 8201 211. Replies are required by 11 June 2014.

Driver - Learner Theory Course

The Allan Miller Driving School is offering two 3-hour sessions of ‘Learner Theory’ in the upcoming school holidays. The course aims to develop road law foundation knowledge to enable students to successfully complete the theory test required for a Learner’s Permit, develop an understanding and appreciation of road safety issues and develop an awareness of safe driving behaviours, risk factors and the potential impact to self and others. The course costs $125 for RAA members and $150 for non-members. For further information, please contact (08) 8202 4444 or email cars@allanmiller.com.au. Year 12 students completing the UMAT in 2014, or Year 11 students considering the UMAT in 2015, may be interested in attending a free UMAT preparation course being run by MedEssentials in the upcoming school holidays. The seminar is being held on Saturday 12 April 2014, in the Florey Lecture Theatre at the Adelaide University Medical School, from 2 – 4pm. Registration is required by emailing your name and school to info@medessentials.com.au.

Career Expos and Open Days
There are several Career Expos held throughout the year and I would strongly encourage you and your child to attend any that are of interest to you, especially if you are wanting to explore post-schooling options. Two I am currently aware of are the Tertiary Studies and Careers Expo which will be held on Sunday 25 May and Monday 26 May at the Adelaide Convention Centre (www.careersevent.com.au) and the National Careers and Employment Expo which will be held on Friday 16 May and Saturday 17 May at the Adelaide Showgrounds (http://ncee.com.au/adelaide/). In addition to these, all of the major SA Universities and TAFE will hold Open Days later in the year, on the weekend of 15 – 17 August 2014, and several faculty areas within the Universities will also hold individual Open Days. These will be advertised to the students, and through the PRW, as dates become available.

International College of Hotel Management Career Week – Monday 7 to Friday 11 July
Year 11 and 12 students considering a career in hospitality or business are encouraged to explore the possibility of taking part in the ICHM Career Week program. It is a live-in introduction to the College, where students will learn about international tourism and hospitality, explore different career paths, gain an introduction to management and supervision topics, visit local hospitality and tourism sites and learn more about the opportunities of
Year 10 Mock Interviews - assistance required

As a part of the Personal Learning Plan, Year 10 students have recently written a job application letter and resume. As a follow up to this activity, students will be involved in a 15 minute mock interview, occurring on the afternoon of Wednesday May 28, from 1pm - 6pm. Year 10 students, and parents, will be given more detailed information about this closer to the date but if there are any parents within our community who have experience in the area of staff recruitment, and would be prepared to contribute some time to be involved in the Year 10 program, I would love to hear from you. New Security Arrangements

The safety and security of our students, staff and community members are a high priority. The open nature of our School site has been of concern, with several incidents of unauthorised entry, theft and vandalism occurring, luckily with no injury to students, staff or Pulteney community members. The School has engaged several organisations to look at a whole of school solution and we have worked very closely with South Australia Police’s Eastern Adelaide Crime Prevention Unit on strategies to improve the security of our site. Over the last two years we have implemented a strategy of Asset Protection and Personal Protection in response to recommendations from the SA Police report.

Firstly, with the recent install of gates and fencing to the South Terrace frontage over the last few weeks, we now finally have a physical fenced and gated barrier around the School. This will provide the urgently needed restriction of free access from South Terrace and will provide us with the opportunity to better control and monitor people entering and leaving the school. To this end, and starting with the commencement of the school holidays, the School perimeter will now be locked of a night time at approximately 8.00pm by our cleaning staff and selected gateways will be opened at 7.00 - 7.15am in the mornings by the Grounds Maintenance Staff. As such, out of school hours access to lockers will not be available to students or parents. We ask that parents encourage their children to be organised in making sure they have their required books and materials with them when leaving at the end of the day, particularly on Fridays.

Secondly, during these holidays the School will be installing CCTV to specific locations in the school that have been identified as “hot spots” from the Police report and previous experience of vandalism and theft. Please be assured that CCTV surveillance is about “looking out” rather than “looking in”; that is, verifying identities during and after any acts of theft, vandalism etc and having the ability to provide us and Police with clear identification of the offender.

Please feel free to contact me on 82165523 if you require further clarification on this.

P&F Manager
Soccer

Last Thursday Pulteney Grammar had the privilege of hosting A.B. Paterson College from the Gold Coast, Queensland for a soccer friendly. We were one of 3 schools to play against their First Boys and Girls XI teams. They conducted themselves with absolute professionalism and sportsmanship, looking very good on the training track prior to the game.

Our First Boys team has been training for a number of weeks now. It was great for coach Lucas Pantellis to have a pre-season game for the boys prior to the Term 2 season. The boys game plan came together well, with Pulteney dominating possession throughout the game to win 1 - 0. Domenico Talladira scoring a sensational goal from long range.

The First XI girls have had a limited preparation, as training has just begun, but with a few new faces to the team they bonded well. Using accurate passing, plus their fitness and scoring power up forward, Pulteney was able to win 7 - 0. There were multiple goal scorers. Imogen Loftes controlled the defensive line, with Cartia Borrelli providing plenty of run supported by Tanya Oliver and Ella Wiltshire. A great team performance, a good way to start the soccer season.

Thanks to A.B. Paterson for the games, the referees and parents that helped with the lines and Nik Sacoutis for his support.

Rowing

Last Saturday was the final regatta of the 2013-2014 rowing season - three weeks after Head of the River! It was a low key affair; many schools experimenting with crew combinations in preparation for next season.

Coaches and rowers should be congratulated for being able to maintain some sort of focus at training since Head of the River and should now take a moment to pause and reflect on the season. At the presentation dinner Saturday evening, we heard from each crew and their coach(es) including the Development Squad which has been training diligently under the supervision of coaches Alex and DrJ. Congratulations to year 8 rowers Pamela Charalibidis and Telopia Kailis-Phillips who raced for the first time in the girls B crew - and looked very good doing it!

A highlight of the regatta was the naming of our newest boat, a double scull/ pair which has been dedicated to the memory of Old Scholar, State and Olympic rower and coach, Bill Dankbaar. Bill’s wife Lesley addressed a good sized crowd during the lunch break of the regatta, providing an insight into the man behind the legend. It was a very touching ceremony during which we learned that among Bill’s prized possessions, which include State and Olympic memorabilia, were two rowing pennants he received while rowing for Pulteney in the 1960’s. We thank Lesley for making the trip from Sydney, school Chaplain, Michael Lane for blessing the boat and Nielsens’ Matthew and Mike for their row past.

Many people were thanked at the presentation dinner on Saturday including the wonderful
Boat Club committee, coaches, rowers and the school, without whom the rowing program could not exist. Thank you to all rowers and coaches, their families and the school rowing community.
