Outstanding Student Successes

SACE Art Show

The Official Opening Night of SACE 2015 Art Show was held on Friday 20 March at the Adelaide College of The Arts in Light Square. The Art Show presents over 150 works from students completing their SACE in 2014. Each year, a number of awards are presented to students whose works are deemed to warrant special recognition and a Major Prize is awarded to a single work selected from the exhibition to be the face of the next year’s promotional material. The winner of this prestigious award also receives a $500 prize donated by The Minister for Youth.

At Friday night’s Opening Ceremony, Dr Neil McGoran, CEO of the SACE Board, announced Jordan Pokorny the winner of this Award. During her time at Pulteney, Jordan pursued her passion for art and Head of Visual Arts, Rod James, said she was a most impressive talent. Jordan was also an outstanding Captain of Art in her final year last year.

We are very proud of Jordan and her achievement.

Head of the River

Our Pulteney Rowers were strong on the water at West Lakes on Saturday 21 March, with all crews across the male and female age ranges achieving their personal best – a wonderful result! The Girls First Four (Alanah Croft, Sally McLoughlin, Nour Mol, Sophie Rawson and Alannah Gilsmore) achieved their goal of securing, once again, the Diana Medlin Trophy.

I thank all of the Pulteney students who came to the regatta after their own sporting commitments, in their formal uniform, to support our rowers and, as always, the Drum Corps drummed all of our rowers throughout the day. I thank Richard Sexton, Coordinator of Rowing, and the Pulteney Boat Club Committee for their dedication and also all of the student rowers, parents and coaching staff who have contributed to the season’s success.

Balancing Being Constantly Connected

I have recently read an article in the latest edition of TechnologyEd that discusses the levels of “connectedness” experienced by educators. In particular, the article investigated the expectations placed upon teachers to respond within very short timeframes to colleague, student and parent requests or queries, especially via email. The authors explored the notion that while we can be connected to one another 24/7, it does not mean we should be.

At Pulteney, we have a Responsive School policy that identifies there should be no more than 24 hours between an enquiry and a responding communication. The aim of this timeframe is to facilitate the prompt acknowledgement of the original communication; it is unlikely that the matter would be fully resolved or the enquiry completed if it was complex in nature. On these occasions much more time would need to be dedicated to achieving a resolution.
The article goes on to say that some organisations have put an embargo on when emails can be sent by all staff – not before 7.30am and not after 7.30pm. I know a number of my teaching colleagues prefer to manage their emails and administrative tasks at set periods of time (sometimes early in the morning or later in the evening) so that they can prioritise important interactions with students and peers throughout the school day and focus on balancing their personal and professional commitments outside of working hours. It is important to remember that one size cannot fit all when it comes to managing email and it is important that, just as for the students, we support each other to facilitate the personalisation of our own time management.

Please be assured that timely communication is important to us at Pulteney Grammar and our staff have a strong commitment to being responsive; however, it is not always possible for a teacher to reply to an email enquiry on the same day, nor is it realistic to expect a fully considered response at 8.00am following an email enquiry received at 10.00pm the previous evening. I do ask that if parents have an urgent matter in relation to their child, please call your child’s sub-school and either speak to the relevant staff member or leave a message for them and they will return your call. If the matter is not urgent, an email can be a positive way to alert the staff member or the matter can be raised when you next see the teacher, or a note put into the student diary.

We certainly value working in close partnership with our parents and students, and electronic communication can indeed facilitate this; there are also many other ways in which we can communicate and I encourage everyone to consider the full range of options available to them.

Staff Appointment

It gives me great pleasure to announce to the wider Pulteney community the appointment of a new member of staff.

Miss Annie Kwok commenced in the role of Music Teacher (Years 6-12) and Year 11 Pastoral Care Teacher last week. Annie is a highly respected music educator having completed 10 years’ experience at Brighton High School where she worked as an integral member of the special interest music programme. Her most recent role was held at the Conservatorium High School in Sydney, where she spent the last 12 months developing the music curriculum and teaching composition. We look forward to her contributions to Pulteney’s Performing Arts programme.

From the Deputy Principal

“The greatest quality of success is the willingness to become.” by Mike Murdock

A parable is told of a farmer who owned an old mule. The mule fell into the farmer’s well. The farmer heard the mule “braying” or whatever mules do when they fall into wells. After carefully assessing the situation, the farmer sympathized with the mule, but decided that neither the mule nor the well was worth the trouble of saving. Instead, he called his neighbours together and told them what had happened and enlisted them to help haul dirt to bury the old mule in the well and put him out of his misery. Initially, the old mule was hysterical! But as the farmer and his neighbours continued shoveling and the dirt hit the mule’s back, a thought struck him. It suddenly dawned on him that every time a shovel load of dirt landed on his back, he should shake it off and step up! This he did, blow after blow. ‘Shake it off and step up… shake it off and step up … shake it off and step up!’ he repeated to himself. No matter how painful the blows, or distressing the situation seemed, the old mule fought “panic” and just kept right on shaking it off and stepping up! You’re right! It wasn’t long before the old mule, battered and exhausted, stepped triumphantly over the wall of that well! What seemed like it would bury him, actually blessed him. All because of the manner in which he handled his adversity.

Today, our students face a variety of challenges. Managing a healthy balance between time spent on their studies and co-curricular activities, maintaining friendships and family time can often be difficult. The ability to remain positive in all situations is not only impossible but also unrealistic.

However, what is important is the fostering and developing of skills such as resilience within our students so that they feel empowered and have strategies to cope during difficult times rather than attempting to avoid or escape the pitfalls of life. As parents and teachers we play a pivotal role in the building of positive self-esteem within our young people. A positive ongoing self-esteem enables students to take risks and so meet life’s challenges with enthusiasm, confidence and optimism. Self-esteem is closely linked with feeling valued. Our young people realise they are valued when their efforts and contributions are welcomed, encouraged and appreciated. Both family and school hold the key to valuing, guiding and supporting our students in their quest to set realistic goals, practice good work habits, rise above disappointments and celebrate achievements and in so doing be encouraged in the discovery of their strengths and acceptance and improvement of their weaknesses. As role models, parents and teachers have the responsibility to provide regular opportunities to share, listen and be of assistance regarding the difficulties, hopes and aspirations of our young people. As educators we are acutely aware of the link between positive self-esteem and academic and social success.

However, just as the donkey demonstrated, it is certainly very rewarding when one can step out triumphantly, confident in the knowledge that despite the outcome they have given of their best and have been supported by people who love, care and value them.

From the Chaplain

Palm Sunday: also a time of Multiculturalism, Peace Activism, Social Justice and Refugees- students’ perspective.

This week chapel has focused on Palm Sunday and the approach of Holy Week. This is a wonderful follow on from last week’s celebration of Harmony Day. The Pulteney student Social Justice Committee has made a valuable contribution to this service and I am publishing their work this week. Regular Committee members include Nicholas Herriot, Matt Slattery, Riley Economos, Jess Lock, Athan Economos, Mollie Hohmann, Alex McKenny, Alana Shahin, and Jeremy Ngo supported by staff mentor Jayme Wearn.

‘INTRODUCTION Holy Week refers to the eight day period from Palm Sunday to Easter Day. During this week Christians follow the drama of the final days of Jesus life, his death on the cross and his Easter Resurrection. Throughout his life, Jesus identified with the persecuted. He himself, as a child, was a refugee in Egypt. On ‘Palm Sunday’ he rode into Jerusalem on a donkey, not on a war horse, a symbol of his humility and refusal to participate in the systems of political violence and domination. Crowds cheered and shouted “Hosanna to the King of Kings.” Yet by the end of the week a crowd would be shouting for his death. What happened?
Today we remember Palm Sunday and prepare ourselves for the story of Holy Week.

BIBLE READING Hebrews 13:1-3 Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters. Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it. Continue to remember those in prison as if you were together with them in prison, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering. Hear the Word of the Lord. Thanks Be to God.

SJC REFLECTION Right now, 1068 children are detained in Australian detention centres. Australia is the only country in the world with a policy of mandatory and indefinite detention for every unauthorized arrival. The Australian Government spends over $8 billion annually on its refugee policies. In 15 months, over 300 children in Australian detention centres have committed or threatened self-harm, 30 children reported sexual assault, almost 30 went on hunger strike and over 200 were involved in assaults.

As a nation, we rank 68th worldwide when compared to other countries’ refugee intake. Asylum seekers who arrive by boat make up less than 1% of total annual migration. The debate around asylum seeker and refugee policy is one that has continued for too long. It has seen political opportunism, scapegoating, racism, dog whistling and xenophobia. We believe that it is time for a new approach that focuses on compassion over punishment, facts over fear-mongering and long-term solutions over short-term political point scoring. It is our belief that refugee policy should be driven by compassion, solidarity, generosity and respect. Government policies should not expose people to harm.

If you agree, please join us this Sunday at Parliament House at 1.30pm for the Palm Sunday Walk for Justice for Refugees. Community organisations, faith groups, advocacy organisations, unions, local businesses, school students and university students, as well as other individuals will come together and we highly encourage you to attend if you are passionate about this issue.

PRAYER Let us pray together-Heavenly Father, We recall that your son, Jesus was a refugee in his infancy. We remember that the Holy Family was forced to flee into Egypt. Loving Father, you understand the pain and anguish of those who are forced to leave their homeland for all sorts of grave reasons. Help us, O Lord, to understand this experience more fully and to respond with gospel fervour to this enormous social issue of our times.

Grant us wisdom, prudence, and a real sense of loving kindness to understand the heartaches of those who find themselves as asylum seekers, migrants and refugees in our wonderful land of Australia.

Mary, Mother of all migrants and refugees, lead us to your Son Jesus, from whom all blessings flow. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Acknowledgment and thanks to Nicholas Herriot.

Fundraising for the Vanuatu victims of cyclone Pam

Senior School Students are planning to raise funds for the Vanuatu Appeal. In chapel services this week your child will receive an ABM Money box. Students are invited to gather coins and bring them back to next week’s Holy Week chapel service. Funds raised will be forwarded to ABM.

ABM Anglican Board of Mission Australia Working for Love, Hope & Justice has a 160 year partnership with the Anglican Church of Melanesia. There are currently three projects underway and an appeal for Vanuatu cyclone victims. For more information to make direct online donations please go to the website: http://www.abmission.org/appeals.php/22/vanuatu-cyclone-emergency-appeal

Blessed Palm Crosses

In chapel this week your child will receive a blessed palm cross. They are invited to keep it or give it to someone who would value and appreciate its meaning. Next year, if it can be found and your child wants to, the palm cross can be returned, to be burnt and be the ashes used in the Ash Wednesday liturgy, 2016.

Magdalene Centre

Providing gifts of food and op shop items for the Magdalene Centre continues to be a regular opportunity for us to do something kind. Donations can be brought to the Chapel Foyer. Basket and boxes have been labelled so that we can sort and care for your donations. Thank you for your ongoing generosity.

Chaplaincy Contact

I can be contacted at any time for any pastoral needs. Please email michael.lane@pulteney.sa.edu.au, phone 8216 5512 / 0434 297 879 or contact the school office.

Cash Payments at the Front Office

Please note that as of Monday March 30 2015, cash payments for school fees will no longer be accepted at the Front Office.

This change has come about after careful consideration of a number of risk factors, including the safety and security of both staff and students.

The school provides a number of options for payment of fees and charges:

- BPay (your BPay details are on the copy of the statement that you receive from the School, please note these are different for school fee and OSHC/ELC payments)
- Credit Card (please note that surcharges apply for these payments, 1% for Visa/Mastercard, and 1.5% for AMEX)
- Cheques (made out to Pulteney Grammar School)
- Direct Debit from either a bank account or credit card (Direct Debit forms can be downloaded from the School website or click here)
- Qkr! – An app that can be downloaded to your smartphone and used to pay fees and order uniforms (information regarding this can be found by clicking here)
- Direct deposit into the School bank account (Commonwealth Bank of Australia: BSB 065 000, Account 1055 1835)

Thank you for your understanding and co-operation in this change.

We very much hope you will be able to support our students on what promises to be a fantastic night!
After-hours classes of Greek language and culture

At the request of a number of parents from Greek background, Pulteney Grammar School has decided to explore the possibility of introducing an after-hours program for the teaching and learning of Modern Greek language and culture for students in Year 1 to Year 6.

The School believes that the opportunity for students to maintain and further develop their cultural and linguistic background and identity contributes constructively to active and productive citizenship within our Australian multicultural society. The School has approached Mr Kostas Fotiadis and had preliminary discussions concerning the establishment of an after-hours Greek language program.

Mr Fotiadis is an experienced educator who has been involved with the teaching and learning of “languages other than English” and Modern Greek in particular at all levels and sectors of education for many years. He currently successfully runs similar programs to the one proposed for Pulteney at Seymour College and Walford Anglican School for Girls as well as tutoring a group of secondary age students.

Being cognisant of student needs and prior knowledge, the overall aim of the program is to allow students to acquire the ability to effectively communicate in Modern Greek, become more knowledgeable about the Greek culture and learn Greek dancing if they choose to do so.

Subject to the number of students who may enrol in the program, it is proposed that classes commence in Week Two of Term Two; operate each Wednesday from 4:00pm to 6:15pm where the last half hour will be dedicated to dancing instruction. For students who choose not to participate in dancing their lessons will conclude at 5:45pm. Classes will take place in the upstairs Drama room of the Cambrell Building.

If you are interested in your child/children participating in the proposed program please register your interest by contacting Kiri Marshall at kiri.marshall@pulteney.sa.edu.au by Monday 30 March, 2015.

If there is sufficient interest, a meeting of parents and Mr Fotiadis will be held prior to the end of Term One to allow parents to meet Mr Fotiadis while at the same time be provided with an opportunity to seek more details about the program.

Kind Regards,

Greg Atterton,
Deputy Principal

Head of the River Regatta

The 2015 Schools’ Head of the River Regatta was held on Saturday 21 March at West Lakes in perfect rowing conditions. The event was attended by an estimated 10,000 spectators who were treated to some first rate racing, particularly late in the day.

This was the culmination of seven months and countless hours of training – reward for the dedication and commitment that defines the ultimate team sport. In all, ten crews proudly donned the navy blue Pulteney zoot suit, negotiating a series of elimination heats and finals against the best from other schools.

Leading the way were the gallant girls of the 1st Four who repeated their heroics of last season, again bringing the Diana Medlin Cup to Pulteney to take pride of place in the trophy cabinet – an outstanding result for such a young crew!

Other solid performances included the 1st Eight boys who produced a great row to again be snapping at the heels of a dominant trio and the intermediate boys A crew which narrowly missed second place in a hotly contested category.

All rowers will be better for the experience of racing before such an enthusiastic crowd and the performances of all crews promise much for next season.

The rowing season formally concluded with the Head of the River dinner in Wyatt Hall on Saturday evening where a capacity crowd heard some fine tributes from our young athletes. Congratulations to all rowers and coaches on a successful season and huge thanks to the rowing community for their continued support.

Head of Rowing

lost to POSA 7-194 Bourchier 4-23

2nd XI Cricket Report
PGS 82 Bennett 26
Lost to Immanuel 9/123
Dean 2/16
We began the game very well bowling tightly and taking early wickets thanks to good catching.
Jack Dean came on and after going for 12 in his first 4 balls, then took 2/4 off his next 14 balls.
At 4/42 it looked like we would be batting early. Unfortunately we were unable to capitalise on the start and Immanuel got way from us late in their innings to post a competitive score.
We began poorly with last week’s century maker proving that cricket is a great leveller, getting out first ball. Closely followed by Jack Dean we were 2/7. A good partnership between Elliot Bennet and James Trotter saw us get to 2/49 and looking good. Unfortunately we then lost wickets steadily and were unable to form any worthwhile partnerships.
There was a significant improvement in our fielding early this week, but our batting proved how fragile it is when we rely on too few. A disappointing result after a promising start.

8/9 Cricket Report
Sat 14 March
Pulteney 4/116 (Will Craddock 29 retired, Sath Sukumuran 23 retired, Liam Creaser 21, Jack Strawbridge 17) defeated Nazareth 86 (Tom Rundle 6/5)
An outstanding display of fast bowling from Tom Rundle reduced Nazareth to 5/11 and then 6/22. Tom was rested after dismissing the top six batsmen in his four overs – five clean bowled and one LBW! Good support from the other bowlers, notably Jai Ruciak, and a superb run out and catch from Sath Sukumaran restricted the opposition to 86. Pulteney achieved a comfortable victory by nine wickets with seven overs to spare after impressive batting from Will Craddock, Sath Sukumaran, Liam Creaser and Jack Strawbridge.
Sat 21 March

Pulteney 7/84 defeated Trinity 4/60

After the long journey to Trinity we restricted the opposition to 60 runs off 25 overs through very accurate bowling and impressive fielding. We comfortably reached the moderate target with seven wickets in hand and nine overs to spare. It was, however, a little disappointing that our top seven batsmen were all dismissed caught – an area that we need to work harder on keeping the ball on the ground at practice. The major difference between the two teams was our superior running between wickets. We remained undefeated despite none of our batsmen reaching 20 or any of our bowlers achieving more than one wicket. Another good team effort!

Year 6/7 (Primary B) Cricket Report

PGS 9/114 defeated Scotch 5/95

Best batting: Matthew Adams 57no, Archer Stonehouse 15.
Best bowling: Declan Beard 2/1 (2 overs), Matthew Adams 1/4 (2 overs), Jack Adamson 1/6 (2 overs), Rory O’Callaghan 1/7 (2 overs)

With the sun barely above Mt Lofty, the match started at Scotch with Pulteney winning the toss and electing to bat. Wayne Inglis was promoted to open this week, but unfortunately he only lasted one delivery playing a very rash shot instead of getting his eye in first. This brought our Number 3, Matt Adams, to the crease. In two very nice partnerships, firstly with the other opener Aiden Rowett and then #4 James Taylor, Matt proceeded to monster the Scotch bowling, taking advantage of the short boundaries on all sides of the ground. When I retired Matt at the 5 min drinks break, he’d hit 45 runs at slightly better than a run-a-ball. An outstanding innings. It was also good to see some solid middle order batting after Matt’s innings, with James Taylor, Rory O’Callaghan (in for his first game this year) and Archer Storehouse (a much improved cricketer in 2015) all scoring double-figures. There was some chaos towards the end of our innings, with a handy left-arm bowler for Scotch producing some excellent swing bowling to take a hat-trick - all bowled against 3 of our better batsman. Matt Adams then came in at the fall of the 9th wicket with 5 balls to go in the innings and peeled off another 3 boundaries, taking our score to 114 - our first time over 100 for the year, and easily the best team batting performance we’ve had as well, despite there being 5 ducks on our scorecard once again!

Our bowling innings started brilliantly, with Declan Beard coming down the slight hill and bowling with some genuine pace, for which he was well rewarded with a double-wicket maiden in his second over. More good bowling in our middle overs from Rory O’Callaghan, Jack Adamson, James Taylor and Isaac Attanasio (whose action and confidence are improving every week) restricted Scotch’s batting until it was too late.

By the time the call came from the sidelines for Scotch to score quick runs, Matt Adams came on with his unplayable leg spin to seal the match for Pulteney, and our first win for the year.

A standout day for Matt Adams, and the team’s confidence grew around his efforts. We look forward to our final match of the term against Scotch once more this Intercol weekend, back on Hooper Oval this Saturday.
